Prepared to Hear?

Sometimes I hear some younger preachers speak in disrespectful tones of some of our older preachers or of preaching of the past. It sort of makes my blood boil. I know none of them were perfect and all of them had blind areas, but most sacrificed so hard and stood so strong as to give us so much of what we have today.

I was talking to my friend "A" recently and he was telling me about a conversation he had a few years ago with a deacon. The deacon was talking about their Sunday night services. The church had gotten Jim Bill McInteer, yes, brother Jim Bill! This guy was explaining why he didn't go to church on Sunday nights and it went something like this: "I'm a busy man, I've got lots to do, and I've got teenage sons. If you want me there you've got to give me something more than Jim Bill McInteer!" Wow! Are you kidding me? It took me immediately to an event in my life nearly 30 years ago.

I wish I remember more of the details but I'll give it as I can. It was about 1970-71...the whole family was together. We were heading back from somewhere, maybe Jeff or Carey remember where, I don't. We stopped in at the Sixth Avenue Church of Christ. As we were getting out of the car and walking across the parking lot to go in, I was 8 or 9, dad said: "Tonight you are probably going to meet the greatest man you will ever meet in your life." That was it. That was all. Now, how do you think I listened to that boring old man that night? I hung on every word. I was on the edge of my seat. And when afterward I got to shake his hand, I remember thinking, for the only time in my life that I have ever had this thought (and for those of you who know my hand washing sickness you'll be amazed), "I will never wash my hand again!" (The preacher was Gus Nichols).

Now, as it turns out, dad wasn't a long way away from being correct. But here's my simple little point. That "deacon" who just knew his kids couldn't get anything out of hearing Jim Bill McInteer (did I mention it was Jim Bill McInteer?) was at fault! If we as parents degrade men of God. If we belittle the preaching and teaching of the word of God. If we do not appreciate the "beautiful feet" of those who "bring glad tidings" then our kids will be bored and disinterested in the same. We turn, we train, we direct even our kids' interest. If our first love is college football they will idolize the coach and the player. If our first love is the Lord they will idolize His Family and His Word.

Who are you preparing your kids to hear?

Family News

Welcome: Ron and Rochelle Dagley have made it known to the elders that they would like to worship and work with the church here at Puyallup. Their contact information will be coming soon. Welcome to Puyallup Ron and Rochelle! We are glad you are here!

Deacons: Our elders plan to install two new deacons, Jon Holland and Jay Bowers, on January 24th. The elders ask that you pray about and talk to these two men during the next two weeks. If anyone has any scriptural objections to either of these men being appointed as deacons, please submit your objections to the elders in writing.

Also, Hugh Kile has stepped down as a deacon. The elders, as do the rest of the congregation, thank him for his many years of service and wish him well in his surgical recovery.

Election of Trustees: As required by state law as a non-profit organization, we must hold annual election of trustees. We will hold the official election of the trustees on January 10th at the end of the 11am service.

Our bylaws specify that we have five trustees. At Puyallup, it has been the practice of the elders to fill all trustee positions with an elder, and then appoint a person when there aren't enough elders. Currently our trustees are Ken Wilson, Bob Sallee, Chris Bartlett, Gene McCaul and Bob Stump. This will be the slate of trustees put forward on the 10th. If you have any questions or comments please let one of the trustees know before the 10th. Thank you!

Congratulations: Carrie Robinson (Ken & Sandy Wilson's granddaughter) has graduated from Bear Valley Bible Institute with a bachelor degree. She appreciates all those from Puyallup who helped support her. She also recently found out she and Benjamin are expecting a baby!
