Stop Being a Fool

I used to read through the book of Proverbs and find proverbs that simply reinforced what I was already doing and think to myself, "It's other people who are fools. If they would just straighten up, the world would be a better place." But then I let the proverbs convict me and reveal to me that I am the one who has been foolish. I have not been upright, righteous, or wise. I have been the fool.

But over and over again, the proverbs make the point that you don't have to keep being a fool. You can learn. You can accept correction. You can humble yourself. You can ask for forgiveness and find God's mercy. The upright and wise are not perfect people. They are people who accept God's correction and repent of their foolish ways. Just because you've acted foolish doesn't mean you have to keep living a foolish life.

It's also obvious that the book of Proverbs teaches that if you live an upright, righteous, and wise life, things tend to work out well for you. So it is very easy to think the proverbs are simply teaching us to live well because it is “practical” to do so. But from the beginning to the end, the message is that we should live well because it is pleasing to the Lord. The fear of the Lord must be the driving factor behind wise living.

Wisdom is knowing the will of the Lord and doing what pleases him. Consider the very import nuance between these two different types of people, who seem to be living very similar lives:

1. One person is motivated to do good because he loves and fears the Lord, and his actions end up benefiting his own life.

Another person is motivated to do good simply because he is seeking the benefit it will bring to himself.

It seems to me, the first man is painted as wise and the second is painted as foolish. Those who do the Lord’s will very often prosper; but there is a vast difference between those who do the Lord’s will because they fear the Lord and those who do it just because they are just seeking to prosper. The second type of man will eventually come to ruin.

When people turn the book of Proverbs into a book of pragmatic advice, sort of an ancient book of life hacks, they are totally missing the point of the book as a whole. The book is promoting wise living as defined by – and motivated by – the Lord.

As Christians, it is our hope, our confident expectation, that all who put their trust in the Lord, even if they died in poverty and shame, will be raised in honor and glory at the coming of Lord Jesus Christ. That is the wisdom that the world finds foolish. That is the wisdom of the Spirit (see 1 Corinthians 2).

So, we do good NOT because we are trying to maximize our pleasure and minimize our pain; we do good because we fear the Lord. The result is the best possible life now, and also an unimaginably great life in the age to come.

Family News

Ladies’ Night Out: Ladies’ Night Out will be Monday, June 11th, 6:00 pm at Famous Dave’s Bar-B-Q near the South Hill Mall. All ladies are invited to join us for some sister fellowship.

Tuesdays at the Park: The Children’s Tuesdays at the Park will starting June 26th, 10:00 am at the South Hill Park located at 14201 86th Ave. E. Puyallup, WA 98375. This is a great time for the children to get together to play and for the parents to get together, but it also is an opportunity for both the children and the parents to be in the community and to be the tree. There is a schedule posted on the foyer doors showing the schedule for the summer. Please see Shannon Dacca if you need more information.

Song Leading Workshop: In an effort to take the next step in our worship service, we will be conducting a song leading workshop on June 16th from 9am to noon. As we prepare our congregation for the move into a new building (with an acoustically engineered auditorium) we want to start now with improving our song leading. This workshop will have techniques that song leaders (both current Sunday morning song leaders and future Sunday song leaders) can use in order to lead the congregation in song service. We are asking for all current Sunday song leaders to attend and those wanting to learn these techniques to help improve their skills and develop a song leading talent. If you have any questions, please see Jon Holland or Mark Jamieson.

Delano Bay Christian Camp Summer Sessions: DBCC summer camp sessions will soon be upon us. Please check out the flyer on the Delano Bay bulletin board or go to delanobay.org for registration forms and more information. Please see Gene McCaul if your child would like to go and financial assistance is needed.

Vacation Bible School: VBS will be July 30th through August 3rd, 2:00 - 5:00 pm. “The Bible is God’s Word” is the theme for this year’s VBS. We are in need of teachers, assistant teachers, and other volunteers. Please see Jimmy Zakem if you would like to help make this year’s VBS successful.

Family News (cont’d)

Mountain States Children’s Home: Change-A-Life! We will be helping Mountain States Children’s Home Change-A-Life Change Can Campaign through August 12, 2018. Funds raised will help purchase clothing and perishable food items which normally cost about $62,000 per year. This is a great way to help children in need. Change cans can be found on the shelf by the foyer bulletin board.

FaithBuilders: This year’s FaithBuilders workshop will be July 12th-14th at Pacific Lutheran University. Please note: We will be in a new building on campus this year. Please check out the schedule and map on the FaithBuilders’ bulletin board. You will also find brochures with the schedule and maps on the bulletin board to take for your use. Also, volunteers are needed to help with FaithBuilders. Please sign up using the sign up sheet provided on the bulletin board. Volunteers helping with at least one morning or afternoon session will receive a free recording of the workshop.
